WILL ASK MR. CARNEGIE TO INVEST IN ARMOURDALE.

Citizens Hope to Repair Damages Done by the Recent Flood.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 13.-J. W. Radford, State Grain Inspector of Kansas, with headquarters in Kansas City, Kas., announced this morning that Armourdale citizens will meet to-morrow night to consider plans by which Andrew Carnegle may be induced to invest a quarter of a million dollars in Armourdale. At the meeting a committee will be appointed to draft an appeal, which will be presented to Mr. Carnegie, asking that he make a loan to such property-owners of Armourdale as need money for repairing their homes and put-ting them in a habitable condition.

This money will be asked on the grounds of absolute necessity and for the purpose of inducing the property-owners to repair their homes and return to Armourdale in an endeavor to restore conditions that preference With Members of Senate Finance Committee.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Aug. 13.-President Roosevelt's conference with the members of the subcommittee of the Senate Finance Committee was not finished until the small hours of this morning.

The whole subject of financial legislation at the approaching session of Congress was discussed thoroughly. The committee, consisting of Senators Aldrich, chairman; Platt of Connecticut, Allison and Spooner, did not present even a tentative draft of a currency bill to the President, although some propositions, which, subsequently, may be embodied in the measure, were reduced to concrete form.

No definite conclusions as to the shape of the proposed legislation were reached. The conference related rather to methods of procedure in the work at hand than to the form of the legislation. At 7:30 o'clock this morning the members of the committee left Sagamore Hill, boarded their yacht, the Sagamore Hill, boarded their yacht, the Vergena, and sailed for Providence on their return to Senator Aldrich's home.

One fact of distinct importance was developed at the conference. While an extraordinary session of Congress next fall is assured, it has not been determined definitely whether it will be called to meet in October or in November. It has been supposed that the extraordinary session would convene on Monday, November 3, but the indication now are that it will be called for an earlier date, perhaps several weeks earlier.

The primary purpose of the extraordinary session will be to enact legislation making operative the Cuban reciprocity treaty, but financial legislation also will be pressed upon the attention of Congress soon after it convenes.

OUTING FOR TEXAS CUSTOMERS

Visitors Bring Reports That St Louis Merchandise Is Gaining a Steady Market in the Southeastern Part of the Country.

There were many arrivals in the Washington avenue wholesale district yesterday and the salesmen found plenty to occupy them in attending to the incoming buyers. Next week, however, will see a decided increase in arrivals, from the fact that then begins an influx of merchants from east of the Mississippi River, which has not hitherto been provided for by the Interstate Merchants' Association.

The new arrangement will bring buyers from many points, including Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky, where St. Louis merchandise has been gaining a steady foot-

One of the features of the week arranged by the Carleton Dry Goods Company was an excursion for its Texas customers, managed by Laurence Boogher, Hope and Jesse Carleton, to the Glen Echo Country Club. The hosts secured the private car Electra and their guests included W. Hoffman of Mason, Felix Mistrot of Galveston, Valentine Peers of Gainesville, Morgan Weaver of Abeline, Mr. Baskin of Cameron, John Helmn of New Bronsfels, Smith Cain of Athens and W. H. Chandler of Plano.

"No beer for you, my friend," he would say. "Take your money home to your family. I do not want it; they need it," and he adhered to this rule.

Six o'clock in the evening was his closing time, and when the clock struck 6 his best customer was told that business was over for the day.

Another pronounced peculiarity of the "Judge" was his dress, which was of the years before the war. When he walked the streets it was in the dress of the days of Clay and Webster; flowing coat, trousers wide in the leg and generous of girth, and collar of the big flowing kind seen in the pictures of early-day statesmen. He was well educated and a Mason of high degree. Nothing is known of his family.

The court found him guilty on all charges and sentenced him to dismissal from the service.

After a careful review of the testimony, Arting Secretary Darling, who has spent months of study on the case, prepared a review of the findings for submission to the President. The Acting Secretary expressed the opinion that Carter was only guilty of neglect in navigation and not guilty of the four charges. He recommended that the sentence of dismissal be mitigated to a reprimand and the President has approved his recommendation.

MISS NANTZ PERMITTED TO KEEP BABY FROM MOTHER

Aunt of Jeanette Nantz Instructed to Produce Child in Court at Hearing To-Day.

Judge Moore, in the Court of Criminal Correction, late yesterday afternoon per-mitted Miss Alice Nantz of No. 2622 Locust street to take her niece, Jeanette M. Nantz, to her home, with the understanding that the baby will be produced in court to-day.

Several days ago Mrs. Viola Busekrus, mother of Jeanette M. Nantz, instituted habeas corpus proceedings to gain possession of the child from Miss Alice Nentz. Deputy Sheriffs have sought in vain to serve the writ on Miss Nantz.

Attorney Harry Walsh, counsel for Mrs. Bur krus, yesterday swore out a warrant charging Miss Nantz with concealing a person after the issuance of a writ of habens Deputy Sheriff Jolly served the warrant and took Miss Nantz and the child to the Four Courts. Judge Moore fixed the bond on the misdemeanor charge at $200. William Grafeman of No. 2001 Morgan street signed the bond. the bond.

Judge Moore at 4 o'clock took up the habeas corpus case. Attorney Ben Clark, for Miss Nantz, contended that the application for a writ of habeas corpus was deficient because it lacked verification by a notary. Judge Moore sustained him, but granted the complainant's request to amend. Judge Clark then announced that such proceedings had taken him by surprise, and he was not prepared to go into the case. Judge Moore allowed him until to-morrow morning to prepare his answer. Miss Nantz then gave bond for her own appearance he was not prepared to go into the case. Judge Moore allowed him until to-morrow morning to prepare his answer. Miss Nantz then gave bond for her own appearance and for the appearance of the child in court. The bond in both cases is $500.

"I shall not give up this child without a fight," said Miss Nantz. "My sister-inlaw has shown that she is not competent to care for the little one. I found the baby nearly blind when I visited Mrs. Busekrus only two weeks ago. I then proposed to her that she let me take the child and have her eyes treated. She consented, but the next day came and said she wanted Jeanette.

"I told her that I had engaged an oculist who already had given the child one treatment. I asked her to let me keep her until her eyes were well. She said ghe would go home and send Jeanette's clothes to me.

"All I want is to keep the baby from going blind. I can prove that her mother has made no effort to prevent it. I have not evaded the service of the writ issued by Judge Moore. I simply was not at home. My attorneys have advised me right along what to do and I have followed their instructions."

what to do and I have followed their in-structions."

The baby showed a preference for her aunt in court when the two women met after the disposal of the case. Mrs. Buse-krus attempted to get hold of the child, but the baby drew back and Miss Nantz clung to her.

Judge Moore witnessed the incident and instructed Miss Nantz to permit the mother to take the child in her arms. The little one finally was turned over to her aunt, who took her home in a carriage.
